

Biography

İlksen TAVŞANOĞLU, Acting Safety Division Manager, Directorate General of Railway Regulation (DGRR)

İlksen TAVŞANOĞLU was appointed acting safety division manager at Directorate General of Railway Regulation (DGRR) in 2014. Safety division of DGRR is mainly responsible for:

- Issuing safety certificates and safety authorization for railway operators and undertakings,
- Supervision of safety management system of railway operators and undertakings,
- Monitoring the implementation of level crossing regulation in Turkey,
- Preparation of necessary legislation in terms of safety and interoperability.

Her previous roles include Acting R&D and Feasibility Studies Division Manager at Turkish State Railways (TCDD) from 2013-2014, Track Engineer at High Speed Regional Directorate of TCDD from 2009-2013, Track Engineer at Permanent Way Department of TCDD from 2006-2009, Civil Engineer at private sector from 1995-2006.

İlksen TAVŞANOĞLU has a MSc from METU, Turkey and an MBA from Zicklin School of Business, NY, USA.

Presentation:

For ILCAD 2015, she will be presenting “Level Crossing Legislation in Turkey”. The presentation will consist of a short introduction of Directorate General of Railway Regulation and a summary of level crossing regulation in Turkey.