

Mr. İbrahim Halil ÇEVİK
Head of Foreign Relations Department
Turkish State Railways – TCDD

Biography

Mr. İbrahim Halil CEVIK, born in Diyarbakır in 1962 took his office as Head of Foreign Relations Department of TCDD in 2007 and still holds this position after many contributions to the Railways in various departments such as Installations, Research Planning and Coordination, Information Technology at the levels of deputy/head of department.

Mr. Cevik studied Electrical Engineering in İstanbul Technical University between 1981-1985 and supported his education with MSc Degree in Electrical Engineering in field of “AC and DC Electric Railway Power Systems” in University of Bath.

Pursuant to his educational and vocational background, his knowledge and responsibilities during his tenure in TCDD include;

- Electrification, Signalling and Telecommunication Projects
- Liberalisation and commercialising and restructuring of Turkish Railways in accordance with EU Acquis and adopting EU railway legislation
- Conducting EU and World Bank projects on behalf of TCDD
- Realising the system analysis and programming for IT Projects
- Relations with International railway organisations/associations and inter-governmental organisations as well as organising international meetings, conferences and symposiums.